It is our pleasure to welcome all of you to the 2023 Chick-fil-A Classic. We are proud and excited to bring some of the best high school players from around the nation to the Midlands of South Carolina. In addition to providing exciting competition for outstanding young athletes, the Classic benefits the Greater Columbia Education Advancement Foundation (GCEAF) which was established to help provide educational scholarship money to deserving high school students in the Greater Columbia area.

We want to sincerely thank everyone who has played a role in the organization of this year's tournament. It takes many hours of hard work and preparation to run a tournament of this magnitude. We are especially appreciative of the financial support this tournament has received from our sponsors. Please take a few minutes to look through this program and support those who have supported the tournament.

We want to wish all participating teams much success in your quest for the Classic Championship and hope that all schools enjoy their visit to Lexington County.

To all of our fans, thank you for attending and supporting the fine young men and women who are participating in this year's tournament. Have a great weekend and an enjoyable holiday season.

Welcome Message from Mayor Steve MacDougall

Hello and welcome to the Town of Lexington, I'm Mayor Steve MacDougall. We are happy to have you in town for the 2023 Chick-fil-A Classic Holiday Basketball Tournament!

The town is a fast-growing community that is a great place to live and raise a family, or just to visit for a day. Our award-winning Police Department is second to none and our schools are some of the best in the state. Situated just outside of the State Capital of Columbia and right beside Lake Murray, the Town of Lexington is perfectly situated so you get the best of both worlds.

Lexington features a growing downtown area thanks to the Icehouse Amphitheater. The Amphitheater hosts concerts, events and a seasonal farmer's market. Situated in the heart of downtown, the Amphitheater is within walking distance to the many restaurants and shops located on Main Street.

If you're looking for hidden gems in the downtown area, escape to Virginia Hylton Park or Gibson Pond Park. Virginia Hylton is an oasis located just behind Town Hall, where you can take a shaded walk under the trees or take the kids to the playground. Just down the road is Gibson Pond Park, where there are picnic shelters and a walking trail.

Lexington is a tight-knit place with a good sense of community. We are glad to have you here and we truly hope you enjoy our town as much as we do.

-Mayor Steve MacDougall

The Greater Columbia Education Advancement Foundation (GCEAF) is a 501(C) 3 non-profit organization that sponsors the Chick-fil-A Classic Holiday Basketball Tournament each December. The Chick-fil-A Classic is a national level high school basketball tournament that features nationally ranked players and teams from across the nation. Each year we welcome over 500 visitors from out of state to our capital city to watch tomorrow stars today.

The mission of the GCEAF is to provide educational scholarships to deserving high school seniors in the Greater Columbia area in addition to providing once-in-a-lifetime athletic experiences for the participating student-athletes, coaches, and fans. Students attending a high school in the Greater Columbia area that are interested in being considered for the GCEAF Scholarships should contact their school guidance counselor. Letters will be sent in early February to these offices notifying them of the scholarships and procedures. The selections are made by the individual school's Scholarship Committee. Local schools who participate in the tournament are guaranteed a scholarship.

The criteria established by the GCEAF is:

- A minimum 3.0 overall grade point average
- At least 95% attendance in school
- Exhibits outstanding character and citizenship
- Involvement in interscholastic athletics

All scholarships will be paid directly to the recipient's college or university.
